

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE

FINANCIAL IMPROPRIETY, IMPROPER CONDUCT AND WHISTLEBLOWER PROTECTIONS

2200
Procedure No.
October 14, 2024
Date

- I. PURPOSE: To provide procedures for detecting, reporting and investigating allegations of financial impropriety and improper conduct in Prince George’s County Public Schools (PGCPS), protection for employees who file related whistleblower claims, and provide an administrative remedial process for PGCPS employees who are subject to personnel actions of reprisal or retaliation for making a protected disclosure.

- II. POLICY: The Prince George’s County Board of Education (Board) and PGCPS prohibit all financial impropriety and/or improper conduct. All employees, members of the Board, and others doing business or providing services to PGCPS are expected to conduct themselves with high ethical and moral standards by adhering to this policy and the Board’s Ethics Regulations (Policy 0107). The Employee and Labor Relations Office (ELRO) will recommend to the Superintendent, or designee, disciplinary action up to and including restitution, demotion, suspension, termination, as well as possible civil or criminal charges, upon a finding that an employee has engaged in financial impropriety and/or improper conduct. (Board Policy 0109)

- III. BACKGROUND:
 - A. PGCPS is a tax-supported entity and recognizes its responsibility for ensuring a high level of integrity and commitment to responsible stewardship of resources. The Board has adopted a policy on financial impropriety, improper conduct and whistleblower protection (formerly Fraud, Waste, Abuse and Whistleblower Protection) that outlines PGCPS’ responsibility for maintaining a high standard of ethics and professional conduct in the protection of the school system’s assets.

 - B. In addition, the Public School Employee Whistleblower Protection Act prohibits a public school employer under certain conditions from taking, or refusing to take, any personnel action as reprisal against a public school employee because the employee discloses or threatens to disclose unlawful behavior; provides information or testifies for an investigation of unlawful behavior; or objects to or refuses to participate in unlawful behavior. For fiduciary responsibility and to support ethical conduct, employees and others are encouraged to report known or suspected financial improprieties or other improper conduct.

- IV. DEFINITIONS: The following definitions apply to the contents of this Administrative Procedure:

the Superintendent who will in turn refer the matter to Internal Audit for appropriate handling.

2. Civil Action

a. Before instituting a civil action, an employee who is subject to a personnel action in violation of Section V.C.2. of this administrative procedure shall notify Superintendent in writing of their intention to institute a civil action.

b. The employee is not required to exhaust any administrative remedies before instituting a civil action.

E. Investigations of Financial Impropriety and Improper Conduct

1. Internal Audit has the primary responsibility for the investigation of reported acts of financial impropriety and improper conduct without bias. To the extent provided by law, Internal Audit will maintain the confidentiality of the identity of reporters, the person who is the subject of the report, and the report produced from the investigation. Retaliation against reporters of financial impropriety and improper conduct is prohibited.

2. Division Chiefs, administrators, and supervisors must promptly forward to Internal Audit intake documents received for reported instances of financial impropriety and improper conduct for investigation. Security Services should advise Internal Audit of reports of financial impropriety and improper conduct to determine the necessity for support for its investigations. Security Services must share their investigation results and work papers with Internal Audit. Reports made online and to the Compliance Hotline can be made anonymously and are investigated by Internal Audit.

3. The Board has authorized Internal Audit to have complete access to all PGCPS facilities, records, documents, and files to conduct audits and investigations of financial impropriety and improper conduct. Internal Audit will investigate and objectively evaluate information obtained relative to allegations of financial impropriety and improper conduct. The facts of each case will be reported in a clear and concise manner in an investigation report. The format and delivery date of the reports will be determined by Internal Audit. Interim reports may be issued.

4. Results of investigations are communicated to the Board Chair, Superintendent, Chief Human Resources Officer, the Director of Employee Labor Relations and further only to those with a need to know. Documentation supporting the investigation will be maintained within Internal Audit and will only be presented to persons authorized as identified by the Chief Internal Auditor. Investigation reports and work papers may be subject to court proceedings in the event of subpoena.

F. Record Retention

Investigation reports and supporting documentation are maintained in accordance with PGCPS procedures. Internal Audit maintains a permanent database of hotline reports of financial impropriety and improper conduct through the Hotline Services vendor.

VI. MONITORING AND ACCOUNTABILITY:

- A. When it is determined that an act of financial impropriety or improper conduct has been committed, the Division of Human Resources Employee and Labor Relations Office (ELRO) must recommend appropriate disciplinary action. These actions may include letters of reprimand, suspension, termination, restitution, or a combination of sanctions.
- B. All reasonable steps will be taken to recover misappropriated PGCPS funds and property including initiation of criminal and or civil proceedings. The Superintendent/designee will determine which financial impropriety and improper conduct activities will be forwarded for further legal action to the appropriate legal entity. The Board will be notified on a monthly basis of such actions. A report may also be made to the Prince George's County Police Department and/or States Attorney or other entity for suspicion of a financial crime and/or civil action may be initiated.
- C. Applicable PGCPS employee personnel files and records must be promptly updated to document actions taken. Notices must also be sent to avoid unauthorized access to PGCPS resources effective upon the date of termination or separation from employment.
- D. The Division of Business Management Services will provide mandatory training for all fiscal related administrative procedures and any updated
